

Small Island Developing States Global Business Network Forum 2024

St. John's, Antigua and Barbuda, May 25-26th 2024

“Bringing the voice of the private sector into the fourth International Conference on SIDS”

Logistics Information

Welcome to the 2024 Small Island Developing States Global Business Network Forum. The following logistics note will outline important details for your attendance.

Antigua and Barbuda

Antigua and Barbuda is a dual-island nation located in Lesser Antilles of the Eastern Caribbean Sea. Antigua is the larger of the two islands, covering 108 square miles. Barbuda 62 square miles. Home to the 1,600 in Barbuda.

Venue

The SIDS Global Business Network Forum will convene on the 25-26 May 2024, preceding the fourth International Conference on SIDS. It will take place at the Sandals Grande Antigua, Antigua and Barbuda, Dickenson Bay Street, Saint John s.

Registration

The SIDS-GBN Forum 2024 will be held as a special event to the SIDS4 Conference. Participants do not need special accreditation to attend the SIDS-GBN Forum. Registration for the SIDS GBN Forum is now open via this form. The deadline to register is 30 April 2024.

In relation to the SIDS4 Conference, participants should visit the Conference website for further guidance on how to attend and register to participate.

Documentation

The SIDS-GBN Forum 2024 draft Programme is available on the website for the SIDS-GBN Forum 2024.

Flights & Visa

Flights to Antigua and Barbuda are limited and we recommend that you book your flights as early as possible. The following list are countries that require an electronic entry visa (eVisa) for Antigua and Barbuda.

Accommodation

Please book your accommodation as early as possible. You can find a few recommended accommodations website.

SIDS-

Useful information

Local language

English is the official language of Antigua & Barbuda.