

for collaboration. Ecuador, one of the countries receiving ongoing support is due to participate as an IDB recipient country in the meeting.

The meeting will also offer an opportunity for countries in the region that have engaged with the Commission, such as Honduras and Guatemala to update Member States on their peacebuilding progress, priorities, and ongoing challenges. This exchange will enable the IDB to identify potential entry points for deeper engagement and support with these countries.

Moreover, the meeting will allow Member States of the PBC to exchange insights with the IDB on peacebuilding practices, opportunities, and challenges in the Americas. This dialogue will facilitate the identification of areas where the IDB and the Commission can complement each other and explore possibilities for future collaboration.
